No. : CM-6

Title: Office of the President (Springer) Records

Creator: Marlene Springer

Dates: 1995-2004

Extent: .5 Linear Feet

Dr. Marlene Springer was appointed the second President of the College of Staten Island in 1994.

Abstract: Dr. Springer earned a bachelor's degree in English and business administration at Centre College in Kentucky. A specialist in nineteenth-century British and American literature and women's literature, Dr. Springer earned her PhD in English Literature and her MA in American Literature from Indiana University in Bloomington. Prior to her appointment, she was Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs at East Carolina University.

At this time, most of the records held by Archives & Special Collections are annual Convocation programs and speeches. Programs are available for all years except 1999, but speeches are only available for 1996-1997 and 2000-2003. The 2003 speech has been printed in black & white for research use; a color version is available as a .pdf file. There are also a few recent annual reports.
